

IN-PEW WEEKEND: NOTES FOR THE PASTOR

The In-Pew Appeal is powerful.

- Over 17% of our goal is raised during In-Pew Weekend from over 9,000 donors.
- For a successful appeal, we hope to get 12,000 donors in 2024.
- By presenting the case of support for the Catholic Charities Appeal at Mass, our pastors are able to reach all the faithful present in churches and those livestreaming across the diocese.
- The In-Pew Appeal is the only way we reach those who have never given to Catholic Charities.
- This method is the best way to reach new donors to Catholic Charities.
- Just like many parishes, our donors are aging and our numbers are declining.
- It is critical to attract new donors to support Catholic Charities for the long-term well-being of this vital organization.

The pastor's leadership is critical to the success of the in-pew process.

- No other member of the parish will be as successful in leading the process.
- People will respond in far greater numbers if the pastor is the one reading the in-pew script.
- Up to this point, people have heard about the Appeal and why it is so very important to support it through a letter from Bishop Malesic. Some will have pledged by mail.
- Now is the time to ask all the rest of the parishioners for their financial support!
- The fact that you, their pastor, is asking will positively affect the importance that people place on the request.
- As pastors, we ask that you reflect on why you support Catholic Charities and the Appeal and publicly comment on some of those reasons.

IN-PEW WEEKEND: NOTES FOR THE PASTOR (CONTINUED)

The mechanics of the In-Pew Appeal are critical to success!

- Distribute the envelopes.
  - Use a group other than the ushers to do so to indicate this collection is somehow different and important.
  - Envelopes left in the pews are easy to ignore.
  - Envelopes left in the pews often become scratch paper. They may get hung on the fridge as a display of a toddler's Mass-time artwork, but are unlikely to become pledges to Catholic Charities.
- Walk parishioners through filling out the envelope.
  - Of course your parishioners can do this on their own, but if you indicate that you are walking them through the process because you want everyone to consider a pledge of support, they are more likely to actually do so.
- Collect the envelopes immediately.
  - Don't wait for the regular collection basket to be passed. Envelopes will be tucked into purses or pockets or put aside.
