

CATHOLIC COMMUNITY
FOUNDATION

Enriching Lives In Northeast Ohio

2015 Annual Report

SHARED PURPOSE. PROFOUND IMPACT.

Our Mission

To foster faith-based stewardship in the community for the spiritual, educational and charitable needs of all.

CATHOLIC IDENTITY

We support the advancement of the works of the Church in Northeast Ohio, ensuring that our investments and grant recipients are in alignment with the teachings and values of the Catholic Church.

SERVICE

We help donors continue the mission of Jesus to transform the world by connecting their support to ministries and services that lift up the Catholic community as well as the entire community of Northeast Ohio.

ACCOUNTABILITY

We earn public trust through the integrity of our work and strength of our partnerships. We are a separate non-profit 501(c)(3) with a Board of Directors that includes Catholic, religious and community leaders.

“CHRISTIAN FAITH IS THUS FAITH IN A PERFECT LOVE, IN ITS DECISIVE POWER, IN ITS ABILITY TO TRANSFORM THE WORLD AND TO UNFOLD ITS HISTORY.”

POPE FRANCIS

Dear Friends,

For the Church, 2015 was a special year. Catholics and non-Catholics were captivated by Pope Francis' historic visit to the United States: as he spoke from the White House lawn, addressed Congress, dined with the poor at Catholic Charities, embraced the disabled, visited a detention center, and once again showed us how to live the joy of the Gospel. Attending the Papal Mass in Washington D.C. was an exhilarating experience for me personally. The Pope's clear concern is with people and the challenges they face.

I am pleased to report that the work of the Catholic Community Foundation is having a profound impact on people, as evidenced in this Annual Report. Our parishes are stronger. People who struggle are finding the resources they need. Tuition assistance is helping Catholic school families. And, there is great support for our seminarians. These initiatives are possible because people throughout the Diocese have come together for a greater good, a shared purpose to continue the work of Jesus on earth and build a stronger family of faithful.

Year 2015 was one of progress for the Catholic Community Foundation. Growth was experienced in our funds, in our support of Catholic Charities, in donor relationships, and in inviting people to consider the Church in their estate planning. I am extremely grateful for the extraordinary generosity of the people of our Diocese who partner with the Foundation to lift up the Church in Northeast Ohio.

I would also like to express my deep appreciation to the Foundation's Board of Directors and staff, who guide the day-to-day activity. Please keep our work in your prayers as we serve Christ and build His Kingdom.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

+ Richard Lennon

Catholic Charities Annual Appeal

SHARED PURPOSE.

To open our hearts with joy and generosity to serve people who suffer from addiction, disabilities, violence, hunger and poverty.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

Disabilities can impact a family in many ways. There is often a loss of income as one parent stays home to provide needed care, while there are extra medications, doctor's appointments, and a greater financial burden. And, for parents of a child with disabilities, summers can be especially stressful as a break from the routine of school can often cause regression.

When Chris started to make phone calls to find a suitable summer camp for Nick, his 13-year old son who has daily seizures and developmental delays, his options were limited. Often his inquiries were met with a negative response. However, that was not the case when Chris reached out to Marilyn Scott, Program Director for Catholic Charities Disability Services. Ms. Scott put Chris' mind at ease and assured him that Camp Happiness could provide for Nick's physical needs, and would also be a place where Nick could have fun.

Chris remembers, "There were about a dozen counselors at the first open house we attended. Within ten minutes everyone knew Nick's name, and they wanted to know my wife and me. They treated us like a family, and when we left it felt like we were walking away from a family gathering."

When Nick attended Camp Happiness for the first time, a new world of experiences was opened to him, as well as to his family: from Friday field trips to museums, parks and theaters to songs, games, and crafts. "The best part of Camp Happiness is that Nick gets to be a kid," says Chris. "He comes home dirty. He comes home muddy. He comes home with a smile on his face every day. He loves the place, and they treat him like a son."

“I AM LEARNING MORE ABOUT GOD AND HOW GOD WANTS US TO BE MORE LIKE HIM.”

EDDIE

Catholic Education

SHARED PURPOSE.

To provide tuition assistance to families who desire a Catholic education for their children, but are unable to pay the full cost due to illness, unemployment and other challenges.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

The physical transformation of Eddie Squire from a student at St. Stanislaus School to Cleveland Central Catholic High School, both located in Cleveland’s Slavic Village, is readily apparent by his 6-foot tall appearance; while his interior transformation becomes apparent as you engage the enthusiastic high school student in conversation. Eddie’s self-confidence, commitment to service, and love for God speak to the profound impact a Catholic education has had in his life.

“It means a lot to be able to attend Cleveland Central Catholic High School,” admits Eddie earnestly. “I feel it is one of the best schools in Cleveland. I am learning more about God and how God wants us to be more like Him -- nice, kind, caring people. I pray every night to follow in His example.”

Eddie’s twin sister Ebony also attends CCCHS. The tuition assistance that the family receives is especially helpful in supporting two students, and in this case, keeping the loving, dynamic duo together.

“I would also like to thank those who have helped me financially (through tuition assistance),” says Eddie. “Thanks to your generosity, I will go further in life and continue to learn more about God and the Bible. I want to be able to give back one day and donate so other people have the opportunities I have received.”

The friendly, unassuming young man continues, “I eventually hope to attend college and pursue a career in music or game design.” His favorite classes continue to be theology, drama and English.

“I love the teachers at Cleveland Central Catholic. They are helping me to get where I want to go. They really care.”

$1.03 Million Raised for Tuition Assistance + Cathedral Renovations

Alleluia Ball

SHARED PURPOSE.

To support Catholic school students with tuition assistance and provide for renovations to the seat of our Diocese, the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

Faith, food, friendship and fundraising came back in full style to the Alleluia Ball, held October 10, 2015 at the Cleveland Convention Center. This storied and significant event returned after a seven-year hiatus and raised $1.03 million for tuition assistance for students and their families, as well as for the refurbishment of pews and other minor aesthetic improvements at the Cathedral of St. John the Evangelist – both vitally important to the evangelizing mission of the Church in our Diocese and beyond.

Co-Chairs Tim and Donna Panzica greeted over 750 guests who heard an inspiring message from renowned business leader and philanthropist, Sam Miller, who was honored with the Lifetime Achievement Award for his extraordinary support of Catholic education in the Diocese of Cleveland.

“Catholic education is a bright, distinguishing mark of the Catholic Church – a story that needs to be told,” said Mr. Miller.

Attendees affirmed Mr. Miller's remarks with an outpouring of generosity during the Call to the Heart live auction, which produced $270,000, thanks to the generosity of attendees. In her closing remarks, Donna Panzica summed up the evening saying, “The generosity in this room chokes me up. I think we just witnessed a miracle here in this room.”

The 2015 event represented a remarkable coming together of the Catholic community to support the incredible work of the Church. It is with eager anticipation that the Alleluia Ball will return in the fall of 2017.

Catholic Worship & Formation

SHARED PURPOSE.

To deepen the spiritual and sacramental life of the faithful by supporting the formation of lay ministers and priests.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

How do you form a happy, holy, and well-educated priest? That's the mission of Borromeo Seminary and Saint Mary's Seminary, under the leadership of Fr. Mark Latcovich. As rector, he guides seminarians through a process that for some men begins with college courses at Borromeo (including many at John Carroll University) followed by a five-year program at the graduate level in Theology at Saint Mary's.

"Formation is based on four pillars – human, spiritual, intellectual and pastoral," explains Fr. Latcovich. "A man coming in at 18 has to embrace these four dimensions to help him mature. At the graduate level, he goes deeper, and by his last year at Saint Mary's, he hopefully integrates all those aspects into his life." During the final year, seminarians are ordained as transitional deacons and assigned to a parish on weekends. The "pastoral pillar" comes front and center, as seminarians begin to experience life in ordained ministry by assisting in liturgies and preaching homilies as they prepare for priesthood.

Patrick Schultz is one of five seminarians to be ordained in May 2016. "Now things get very practical – we learn how to hear confessions, anoint the sick, plan and do baptisms, marriage prep and counseling. You're not playing dress-up any more, you're doing the real thing!"

Support systems become critical, as Fr. Latcovich cites this as a key advantage of a diocesan seminary. "Studies show what keeps a man a priest. If a diocese has its own seminary, a man develops critical support systems not only with his family, but with priests and lay people they come to know."

After 25 years of working in the seminary, Fr. Latcovich sees a new trend toward younger men entering right out of high school or college, with about five men being ordained each year. "They're very altruistic and want to make a difference in the world. They love and value what the Church offers society." He also sees a sense of gratitude among seminarians who appreciate support for room and board, tuition, and mission trips.

"I have immense gratitude to the people who make herculean sacrifices for us to study in the diocese," says Patrick Schultz. "It's a very expensive endeavor and expresses the Church's desire to have good and holy priests. We are transformed by the love of Jesus and then go out and serve the very people who supported us."

"IF A DIOCESE HAS ITS OWN SEMINARY,
A MAN DEVELOPS CRITICAL SUPPORT
SYSTEMS NOT ONLY WITH HIS FAMILY,
BUT WITH PRIESTS AND LAY PEOPLE
THEY COME TO KNOW."

FR. LATCOVICH

“We spent most of our life in Northeast Ohio and have been very active in what is now the Catholic Community Foundation. We look upon giving as “investing,” we are investing in the community. As investors we look for a return; but it is not a financial return to us, it is a return for the betterment of the community in which we live and our children and grandchildren live. If we can better the community that we all live in, then we are making a very good investment. Certainly the works done through the Catholic Community Foundation improve our community a great deal, and we are happy to invest in it.”

“I’ve always felt that the success that I experienced in business and in other areas of my life wasn’t all because of me. I’ve been helped in many ways from a personal perspective as well as a financial standpoint. I believe that you have to give back to people who aren’t as fortunate, and I strive to do that on an annual basis through Catholic Charities. I get great joy from being in a position to help those who are in need. It makes me feel as if I am doing God’s work. I also find that what you give out, you will get back. Catholic Charities helps so many people in so many ways, and I want to be part of that.”

SHARED PURPOSE.

To strengthen the future of the Catholic Church in Northeast Ohio and to bring Christ’s message of mercy and hope to all people.

“WHAT IF WE ALL HAD THIS JOY OF CHRIST IN US THAT WE WERE ABLE TO HAVE AS A VISIBLE SIGN TO OTHERS?”

MARYSARAH

PROFOUND IMPACT.

The plans were set for about 100 people representing the University of Akron Newman Center to attend Pope Francis’ historic visit to Philadelphia. Charter buses had been rented. Katie Brumbaugh, current president of Akron Newman, arranged for an overnight stay at the National Museum of American Jewish History, across the street from Independence Hall.

MarySarah Menkhaus, vice president of Akron Newman, believed just one thing was missing: a papal flag for the group to fly in Philadelphia. “My friends and I were on Amazon, frantically searching for a flag, and we couldn’t find anything,” she recalls. Finally, a friend’s mother found one online and had it delivered the day before the trip.

The flag was the finishing touch on a life-changing experience. “It was probably the biggest community I have ever felt in my life,” MarySarah says about walking among throngs of people who had come to see the Pope.

Katie agrees. “You know that the Church is everywhere, but when you get this kind of experience, you realize it even more,” she says.

For Akron Newman member Andrew Kustec, the experience was similar to the annual March for Life in Washington, D.C. “Everyone is there for the same reason. There’s so much energy,” he says. The Pope’s words about the sanctity of life hit home with Andrew. “It was so beautiful to hear,” he recalls. “In our society today, the family is very much taken for granted. His words reinforced the Christian value of the family.”

In addition to what Pope Francis had to say, MarySarah keeps with her the image of Francis as he moved past the crowds. “The joy on his face was so real,” she says. “I kept thinking, ‘What if we all had this joy of Christ in us that we were able to have as a visible sign to others?’ That’s what I’ve been reflecting on since then.”

Ranked by BestCollegeReviews.org as the 18th best Newman Center in the country, Akron Newman received a grant from Rooted in Faith - Forward in Hope for members to attend a Campus Ministry Leadership Institute at St. Xavier University in Chicago. Seeing Pope Francis in Philadelphia may have been a huge highlight for the ministry, but it’s clear Akron Newman is staying engaged with activities that reinforce its mission.

Deo Gratias

SHARED PURPOSE.

To recognize God's grace, celebrate our lives as Catholics, and give thanks for His goodness and generosity.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

In a celebration named with the Latin term for “Thanks Be To God,” Philip H. Maynard received the Archbishop Edward F. Hoban Award for his distinguished service to the Diocese of Cleveland as demonstrated by his philanthropy, leadership and service. Bishop Richard Lennon presented the medal, stating that the award “recognizes a very, very active man of the community...as you find him helping people with his gifts to Catholic Charities, diocesan education and the Catholic Community Foundation. He has given himself through many, many good works...and his example of wanting to partner with others.”

Much of Phil's philanthropic and volunteer efforts have been focused on Northeast Ohio, mainly in areas affecting children, education and the poor. “When I first became involved in my business, I saw that there were opportunities to give back. My wife and I believe very strongly that you can't outgive the Lord – He doesn't add your blessings, He multiplies,” Phil remarks.

Phil is Chairman and CEO of ASW Properties, and has established The Maynard Family Foundation as a means to “give back” from his various profitable ventures. He has been on the board of the Catholic Community Foundation since 2004, serving as board chair from 2009-2011. The Akron native has received many accolades throughout the years, including the Distinguished Alumni Award from Archbishop Hoban High School, the Children's Champion from Akron Children's Hospital, and the Salvation Army's 2013 Community Medal.

Phil and his wife, Tomiko are members of Nativity of the Lord Jesus Christ Church in Uniontown, where Phil serves on the Parish Finance Council, and as a Lector and Eucharistic Minister. The couple has been married for 47 years and have two married daughters and six grandchildren.

The Archbishop Edward F. Hoban award memorializes the Archbishop whose devout spiritual leadership fueled the largest expansion of programs in education, social services and ecclesiastical growth in the Diocese of Cleveland.

Heritage Society

SHARED PURPOSE.

Provide a stable and predictable support for Catholic ministries and programs in Northeast Ohio.

PROFOUND IMPACT.

Charlie and Sharon Snee have been parishioners at St. Christopher Parish in Rocky River their entire married life – 38 years. Throughout that time, the parish has enriched their Catholic faith through their participation in parish ministries, such as Christ Renews His Parish, Pre-Cana, the parish school and CYO sports.

When it comes to their generosity, Charlie and Sharon view the Church through a wider lens. “The reason we support the ministries of the Diocese is because we are the Church. It’s not like paying a bill. We give because we want to provide for all of us, for our grandchildren and for others, whether it is for Catholic Charities, Priestly Formation or Catholic Education,” says Charlie.

Charlie and Sharon have named their parish and Catholic Charities in their will, leaving a legacy that mirrors their priorities. Sharon’s heart for giving back started with her childhood in Pennsylvania where her father worked in a machine shop and the family struggled financially to care for her sister who had juvenile diabetes. “We depended on help from Knights of Columbus and the Lion’s Club when my dad was laid off and we still had needs for my sister, who passed away in 1976.” Sharon’s passion for helping others led her to a career in pharmacy, in which she continues to work full time.

Charlie, who is retired from a career in the insurance industry, adds, “When I think of my parents and grandparents, I reflect on the faith they passed on to me. And, when I think of my children and grandchildren, my hope is that what I leave to the Church will help future generations.” The couple agrees that their planned gift is a way of communicating their faith and values. Charlie says, “I often think to myself ‘what would my dad’ do in this or that situation. Someday, my grandchildren may be asking, ‘what would Grandpa Snee do’; and more important, ‘what would Jesus want?’”

“Charles and I like to give because it is part of us as a couple. It is important to us to give to people who are less fortunate than us because we care,” says Sharon.

HERITAGE SOCIETY

Members of the Heritage Society understand the importance of passing on the legacy of our Catholic faith to the next generation. By making plans for a bequest or other future gift to strengthen the ministries of the Diocese of Cleveland, these dedicated Catholics inspire others to help build God's kingdom on earth. We gratefully recognize and honor the individuals who have included their parish or a diocesan ministry such as Catholic Charities, Catholic Education or Priestly Formation in their estate plans.

A Look Forward

“Be mindful of your mercy, O Lord, and your steadfast love, for they have been from of old” (Ps 25:6).

When Pope Francis declared the Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, he not only marked a moment steeped in Catholic history, but created a bridge between 2015 and 2016 – a continuum of time to connect our love of God with our love for others.

What can we do to make this year special? As the Catholic Community Foundation, we continue to invite people of Northeast Ohio to participate in Christ’s mercy through faithful philanthropy. Goals are in place to raise and disburse funds that will:

- † Strengthen Parish Life
- † Update our Catholic Schools with advancements in technology and security
- † Expand and continue diocesan-wide Evangelization efforts, such as the Annual Evening of Confession

- † Share the Good News to individuals and families through the new Northeast Ohio Catholic magazine mailed to 246,000 Catholic households
- † Expand facilities and programs of Catholic Charities to meet the needs of the poor and address today’s most pressing challenges
- † Support seminarians in formation and care for diocesan priests in their retirement

We continue to see the Church in Northeast Ohio strengthened, unified and invigorated through God’s grace, facilitated by philanthropy.

As we make an effort to uplift the Church and eliminate challenges facing our region in 2016, we pray that you will continue to partner with the Catholic Community Foundation and be led to participate in God’s everlasting mercy.
